Ooooo shit baby, why do you do this to me
The glow from your body has me blinded
I'm waiting for your love to come and set me free
Your eyes, oh those eyes
Watching, staring up at me
Should I look, or should I turn away
My reaction, I do not want you to see
Ooooo come on baby
Ummmm, I am feeling you now
Between my fingers, your hair feels so soft
Your tongue like a dancer around my pole, sliding up and down
Wait, sssshhhh, did you hear that
Is that your husband. I think he's home
I don't care, where were we, oh yeah, just like that
Oh yeah, baby. Take it. Get it until it's gone
Yes, yes, ummmm baby you have my soul
Here, woman please have my body
And remember, our love is forbidden
Please, don't tell anybody
